Compass Club

Brothers, our next meeting will be the last one of this calendar year and it is our annual meeting, I expect that we will have an audit and some of the officers and directors may be asked to a participate, possibly a special meeting, We want to tighten the operation and ask for your cooperation,

We will discuss the possibility of changing our meeting night, it is hectic having it after the regular meeting and it becomes a burden to some brothers, we will have a slim choice of nights but we will find a solution one way or another.

The application to restore our home corporation to a non-profit status is near completion, at this time we are applying to the State for re-instatement of the Corporation and later we will apply to the IRS for anon-profit status. The due date is mid Nov. so, we are asking for an extension and hopefully we will have all this completed by May or June of 2018.

A temporary sign had been installed and it will clarify the request from Supreme and clarify that the building is not part of the Knights of Columbus and hopefully it will help our visitors to identify our building easier.

Armando Sanchez

Grand Knight

Well, my brothers, Fr. McGivney must be saying, “OK, Council 3926, I’m going to give you a little break. It’s been a crazy couple of months, and you need a little time to rejuvenate.” True, the last couple of months have indeed been hectic. It seems like everyone in the community finally discovered that there is a KofC council in their midst who is always looking for something to do.

And you guys, my brother Knights, should be proud of what you have accomplished. Wait! Isn’t “pride” a sin, you ask? Not in this Grand Knight’s book, it isn’t. Not if what we do serves our parish and community for the glory of Our Lord.

What really made these couple of months so intriguing and satisfying, is that, we had to react (at times with very short notice) to events that were outside of our normal calendar. Primarily from our local parish (by the way, which is actually a great honor). As the theory goes, if you do a good job, you’ll get more work. It seems we have been very successful. The latest being our support of a inter-denominational pro-life group, Horizon Pregnancy Center’s Walk-For-Life. The praise the Knights received was, to say the least, humbling. But, what truly, truly impressed me (and others) was your ability to adapt to various needs. That ability requires talent, intelligence and experience. That, you have in abundance.

Which brings up another thought. RECRUITING. Many of our “prime” prospects are already very active in various ministries. That’s why they are “prime” prospects. They are the ones who are attracted by the chance to serve. The Knights of Columbus does that in spades. So, how do we differentiate ourselves from other “service” ministries? The answer is in our title. KNIGHTS! Besides being good workers and servants of Christ, we are CATHOLIC MEN who are not afraid or ashamed to proclaim and defend our faith. The image that we portray and the work we do is aimed at one principle. Serving Christ and devotion to Our Blessed Mother. In trying times such as now, the Knights of Columbus has become truly relevant.

Aloha till next time. Vivat Jesus!

Deputy Grand Knight-Program Director

Bothers:

Personally I would like to thank all the volunteers that came out to support the many council events held in October. The good thing was the number of volunteers and the many different brothers supporting our events. Please keep supporting our many charitable works. Coming in November:

Walk for Life

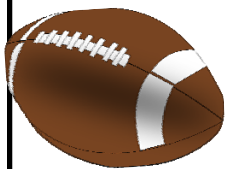

One of the tables set up along the route of walking for life. Council 3926, Garden Grove Council, the Catholic Daughters all were involved in providing canopies with tables of water and snakes. The event as usual was very successful.

District Deputy

I was fortunate to spend the last weekend with our Immediate Past State Deputy in Santa Maria. At mass on Sunday, the sermon centered around "Love thy neighbor as thy self". The celebrant posed the question "who is our neighbor". Did Jesus mean just those people that look like me, my skin color, my height, my nationality, my weight? He quoted from the bible that God made us in His own image, so our neighbor is everyone because we are all made in His image. He pointed out our hypocrisy of attending mass acting as if we are holy while we hate people for no reason other than they are different from us.

Love thy neighbor is the same as serve thy neighbor. When one is in need, as fellow children of God, we should help, that is charity. Is that not what the Knights of Columbus is all about? Men from all walks of life, all different cultures all different sizes, all different colors joining together to help those less fortunate, our parishes, our communities? Are we tired, maybe, do we care for our fellow man, absolutely do we want to help others, without question. Yes that is truly a sign of loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. Shouldn't every Catholic gentleman be given a chance to serve as we Knights?

The ID Drive continues

The drive at Blessed Sacrament was a great success raising a good percentage of our goal but we have not arrived there yet. Chairman Eddie Morales is depending on members and families along with youth group such as the picture below. All funds collected will be for Intellectually Disadvantaged. They provide a camping experience at Camp Recreation and gives the caregivers respite from their never ending task of caring for God's special people.
